  - (4) Audience Extension means serving the Advertiser's Advertisements to users of the workingmumsanddads.com Network on third party websites. This is achieved through the use of Cookie-technology to track a user's browsing activity when on the workingmumsanddads.com network and to tag the user with a retargeting Cookie (Retargeting Cookie), so that the user will continue to see Advertisements from the Advertiser on selected websites outside of the workingmumsanddads.com Network (where advertising inventory is made available to the Publisher).
  - (5) Audience Extension Inventory means advertising inventory on third party websites which is made available to the Publisher for use for Audience Extension for the Advertiser's Advertisements.
  - (6) Buyer means the person placing the order with the Publisher for the Campaign, whether such person is the Advertiser or the Advertiser's advertising agency or media buyer.
  - (7) Buyer Materials means all information, materials and content in any format provided by or on behalf of the Buyer for use in connection with the Campaign.
  - (8) Campaign means the organised programme of advertising and promotional activity as set out in the Campaign Schedule or, if there is no Campaign Schedule, as otherwise agreed by the parties. The programme may consist of only one or more items, whether an Advertisement or a promotional activity or other activity or item;
  - (9) Campaign Schedule means the campaign schedule to this Agreement (if any) or otherwise such schedule of campaign activity agreed by the parties. For clarity, campaign activity may comprise of one or more items, whether an Advertisement or a promotional activity or other activity or item;

- (10) Charge (s) means the Publisher's advertising charge(s) for the Advertisement, Campaign, or Insertion as notified to the Buyer and agreed (including any Charge and Additional Charge set out in any Term Sheet), or if there is no such notification and agreement, the Publisher's standard charges as set out in its Media Kit .
  - (11) Content means all content, materials, concepts and ideas prepared, created and/or developed for any Advertisement and/or Campaign.
  - (12) FSMA means the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 together with any rules, orders, regulations, codes of practice and delegated legislation made there under from time to time and all rules, guides and codes issued, published and/or updated from time to time by the Financial Services Authority including without limitation the FCA Handbook.
  - (13) Impression means each individual instance in which an Advertisement is successfully served to a third party user's web browser (or similar software) via the workingmumsanddads.com Network, and, in the case of Audience Extension, via the Audience Extension Inventory.
  - (14) Insert means any insert or insert which is separately distributed with email campaigns, distributed by email to an email database.
  - (15) Insertion Order means any order under which the parties confirm and the Publisher accepts for the placement of Advertisements, Inserts and/or the delivery of the Campaign.
  - (16) Intellectual Property Rights means any and all intellectual property rights of whatever nature and in whatever form including inventions, patents, trademarks, registered designs, pending applications for any of the foregoing, trade and business names, brand names, unregistered trademarks, unregistered designs and rights in designs, copyrights, database rights, moral rights, performers rights, know-how, trade secrets and all other similar or equivalent industrial, intellectual or commercial rights or property subsisting under the laws of each and every jurisdiction throughout the world whether registered or not, and whether vested, contingent or future, and all reversions, renewals and extensions of any of the foregoing, and all rights under licences, consents, orders, statutes or otherwise in relation to any of the foregoing and all rights to apply for registration of such of the foregoing as are registrable.
  - (17) Promotion means a promotional reader offer (if any) which is agreed by the parties as part of the Campaign, details of which are set out in the Campaign Schedule;
  - (18) Publisher's Intellectual Property means the content referred to in clause 15.2 and the Publisher's registered and unregistered trademarks.
  - (19) Media Kit means the Publisher's Media Kit in effect from time to time and may include, among other matters, its scale of advertisement rates, technical specifications, copy and cancellation deadlines and setting styles, and other terms and/or conditions set out at www.workingmumsanddads.com.
  - (20) Retargeting Cookie means the Cookie used to tag users of the workingmumsanddads.com Network as described in the definition of Audience Extension.
- (21) workingmumsanddads.com Network means websites published by the Publisher (including www.workingmumsanddads.com) and websites published by third parties on which the Publisher may publish the Advertisement, mobile versions of those websites and mobile pages or apps published or reproduced by the Publisher on any mobile device.
  - (22) Term Sheet means the term sheet for the Campaign as attached to this Agreement or otherwise the commercial terms agreed by the parties for the Campaign.

1.3 Reference to:

- (1) any one gender (masculine, feminine and neuter) includes the others;
  - (2) the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular;
  - (3) a person includes a body corporate;
  - (4) a party includes the party's executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns;
  - (5) money is to British Pounds Sterling, unless otherwise stated;
  - (6) any thing includes the whole and each part of it separately; and
  - (7) a "person" includes any individual, firm, company, corporation, body corporate, government, state or agency of state, trust or foundation, or any association, partnership or unincorporated body of two or more of the foregoing (whether or not having separate legal personality and wherever incorporated or established).
- 1.4 "Including" and similar expressions are not words of limitation.
  - 1.5 Where a word or expression is given a particular meaning, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of that word or expression have a corresponding meaning.
  - 1.6 Headings are for convenience only and do not form part of this Agreement or affect its interpretation.
  - 1.7 A provision of this Agreement must not be construed to the disadvantage of a party merely because that party was responsible for the preparation of the Agreement or the inclusion of the provision in the Agreement.

2. Status of Buyer

- 2.1 The party placing the order for the Advertisement ("Buyer") shall do so as principal at law. This is regardless of whether that party is the Advertiser itself or is the Advertiser's advertising agency or media buyer or is acting for the Advertiser in some other representative capacity. Therefore under this Agreement, the Buyer shall have full liability for all obligations of both the Buyer and of the Advertiser.

3. The Campaign

- 3.1 The Publisher's Charge is agreed on the basis of the Campaign activity as described in the Campaign Schedule. Accordingly, it is agreed that if the Buyer proposes to use a promotional concept outside the scope of this Campaign, then such use may only take place provided that appropriate remuneration and licensing provisions are agreed in writing between the parties in advance.

4. Publisher's Rights Reserved

- 4.1 The Publisher may change the format of any of its publications, its advertisement rates and technical and other specifications for each of its different publications and form of media at any time and may vary or apply differing rates and specifications accordingly.

The Publisher gives no warranty or guarantee in relation to:

- (1) date of Insertion nor position or location of the Advertisement;
- (2) quality of the colour or mono reproduction of any Advertisement;
- (3) the availability or the absence of technical or other disturbances on the internet or the workingmumsanddads.com Network;
- (4) the attendance or response rate or take up for any event, or direct mailing or email campaign or coupons or other form of Advertisement nor the number of clicks or page impressions or unique views for any online activity (unless otherwise specified in writing in the Campaign Schedule);

In the event of any problem arising in relation to the foregoing the Buyer accepts that the Publisher shall not be obliged to give any compensation or refunds in such instances.

- 4.3 All orders and bookings are subject to change or cancellation due to production, promotions and editorial schedules. The Publisher reserves the right to decline any order or booking or decline to publish any Advertisement or decline to undertake any Campaign activity.
  - 4.4 In relation to on-line Advertisements, without prejudice to the Publisher's other rights and remedies, at any time and without giving advance notice to the Buyer, the Publisher may permanently or temporarily move, remove or edit an Advertisement from the workingmumsanddads.com Network and, in the case of Audience Extension, from the Audience Extension Inventory.
  - 4.5 The Publisher may show and/or display the Advertisement and/or the Campaign for internal purposes and for marketing its services to other prospective advertisers, including in any public relations materials and direct marketing materials.
5. Buyer's Materials
    - 5.1 The Buyer shall submit to the Publisher all materials, content and information in relation to all Advertisements and/or the Campaign in advance of publication or display or delivery or Insertion of any Advertisement or any item of the Campaign in accordance with the Publisher's deadlines and timescales, unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher.
    - 5.2 Whilst the Publisher shall exercise reasonable care in relation to the Buyer Materials, the Publisher will not be liable for any loss of or damage to any Buyer Materials.
  6. Publisher's Obligations
    - 6.1 Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, the Publisher shall have and shall retain complete editorial control in relation to all editorial content forming part of the Campaign. This is a paramount right.
    - 6.2 Where the Publisher is creating the Advertising Copy, the Publisher shall supply any Advertising Copy to the Advertiser for the Advertiser's comment and feedback (such feedback to be given to the Publisher within the deadlines notified to the Advertiser in writing by the Publisher in each case).
    - 6.3 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, the Publisher:
      - (1) has final editorial approval over all mast heads, straplines, page design, position and location, display dimensions, framing, display environment, graphics used, colours, manner of display, fonts style and size,

Terms and Conditions of Advertising

- visibility, text alternatives and tags and other computer language coding; and
- (2) may refuse or require to be amended or decline to publish any Content if it is not in compliance with the requirements of clause 20.1 or the Media Kit (where applicable).
7. Mistakes and errors
- 7.1 The Buyer must check the correctness of each and every Advertisement and/or the details of the Campaign. In the case of multiple or repeat Advertisements, the Publisher assumes no responsibility for the repetition of an error unless the Buyer has notified the Publisher immediately the error occurs and before the Publisher's deadline for the next Insertion or publication or display or delivery of a Campaign item.
8. Additional conditions applying to online Advertisements (including on Audience Extension)
- 8.1 This clause applies where the Campaign or Advertisement includes any website or online or digital activity on the workingmumsanddads.com Network and in respect of Audience Extension campaigns on Audience Extension Inventory.
- 8.2 Advertisements must be delivered to workingmumsanddads.com in the format prescribed by workingmumsanddads.com (the prescribed format is set out in the Media Kit) no later than 3 business days (for standard format) or 5 business days (for rich media format) prior to publication. In the event of late submission of an Advertisement:
- (1) the agreed start date for the first appearance of such Advertisement will be moved to an alternative date to be determined at TMG's sole discretion; and
- (2) the finish date of any campaign as set out in the Insertion Order will not be extended; and
- (3) notwithstanding the provisions of clause 4.1(2), the Charges as set out in the Insertion Order or Term Sheet (as the case may be) will be payable in full.
- 8.3 Notwithstanding clause 8.1, the Publisher shall not be bound by a stop order or cancellation or postponement of any online Advertisement or the Campaign (or any element of it) unless the stop order, cancellation or postponement is submitted to the Publisher in writing within the deadlines set out in the Media Kit, or if not so specified in the Media Kit, not less than thirty (30) days before the Campaign start date, unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing.
- 8.4 The Advertiser (or the Buyer, as the case may be) is responsible for complying with clause 16.12 and the Publisher reserves the right to refuse the publication of non-compliant Advertisement and the Advertiser (or the Buyer, as the case may be) shall nevertheless be liable to pay for the non-compliant Advertisement even if it is refused under this clause.
9. This section has been deliberately removed from the Terms and Conditions.
10. This section has been deliberately removed from the Terms and Conditions.
11. Additional Conditions relating to Reader Offer Promotions
- 11.1 This clause applies where the Campaign or Advertisement includes a Promotion.
- 11.2 Where a Promotion forms part of the Campaign, such Promotion shall be offered to readers on terms and conditions agreed by the parties ("Offer Copy") and the
- Buyer shall ensure that the product or service which is offered under the Promotion conforms to and perform in all respects in accordance with the Offer Copy and any other relevant specifications and standards.
- 11.3 The Buyer shall not make or allow to be made on its or the Advertiser's behalf the same or similar offer to the Promotion to consumers directly or indirectly through any third party during the promotion period in the United Kingdom, in order to preserve the unique contemporaneous appeal of the Promotion to the Advertiser's readers.
- 11.4 The Buyer shall warrant that:
- (1) the Advertiser has made an accurate and reasonable assessment of the likely take-up by readers of the Promotion;
- (2) the Advertiser has full power and authority to enter into and perform this Agreement and to supply the item or service which is the subject of the Promotion;
- (3) the Advertiser holds adequate stocks/has adequate availability of item / service promoted given its assessment of likely take up. The Advertiser is obliged to make available to all eligible participants in the Promotion the item or service which is the subject of the Promotion;
- (4) the Advertiser has adequate logistical processes in place to meet and supply the likely demand for Promotion in accordance with the delivery times specified in the Promotion offer copy (if any);
- (5) if the Promotion is for or includes a service, the service is performed with reasonable skill and care and according to the highest industry standard;
- (6) if the Promotion is for or includes a chattel, it must be free from defects in materials and workmanship and of the highest industry standard;
- (7) if the Promotion is for or includes a chattel that requires delivery and installation, delivery and installation shall be in undertaken with all reasonable skill by personnel of appropriate expertise and experience;
- (8) if the Promotion is of or includes any element of travel, holiday or accommodation:
- (a) the Advertiser has and shall maintain up-to-date travel industry insurance bond and registration (for example, ABTA, FTO, AITO, ABTOT) sufficient to cover all potential liability to customers and/or the Publisher in connection with the Promotion; and
- (b) the Advertiser holds and shall maintain current up-to-date IATA or ATOL accreditation for any travel elements of the Promotion, if and to the extent that it is required to hold such accreditation;
- (9) the Advertiser provides all eligible participants with all necessary documents and information relating to the subject of the Promotion and otherwise complies with all relevant Applicable Regulations; and
- (10) should the Advertiser receive any oral, written or telephone complaint about the Promotion from any participant or from any relevant trading standards authority, it immediately notifies the Publisher, delivers any relevant documentation and handles all such complaints promptly and efficiently, and in accordance with Publisher's reasonable instructions.
12. Payments and charges
- 12.1 The Buyer shall pay the Charges together with any associated agency commission without deduction or set off.
- 12.2 All sums payable under this Agreement are exclusive of any value added tax that may be payable by either party and refer to UK editions only. Value added tax will be added to the sum payable on the invoice at the relevant rate on the date of invoicing. If any Campaign, Advertisements and/or Inserts are run in non-UK editions of the Newspapers, these will be subject to TMG's then prevailing rates for non-UK editions.
- 12.3 In the absence of any other specific arrangement between the Publisher and the Buyer (as evidenced in writing), payment in respect of the Advertisement and any item of the Campaign (including any associated production, late copy and box number charges) is due in advance of publication or insertion.
- Full details of each remittance are to be supplied to the Publisher by the due time.
- 12.4 Payment shall mean the receipt by the Publisher at its principal place of business (or elsewhere as it may direct) of cleared funds at its bank of moneys transferred electronically in cleared funds or through the clearing banks' giro credit system or BACS. The Publisher reserves to itself a right to recharge the Buyer any charges it incurs resulting from the Buyer's chosen method of payment.
- 12.5 Although the Publisher makes every effort to render invoices in the ordinary course, payment for the Advertisement, Insertion and the Campaign shall be made as detailed above whether or not the Buyer shall have received the Publisher's invoice or provided the Publisher with an order number at the time the Advertisement or item of the Campaign was booked.
- 12.6 Any overdue payments of the Charge and other monies payable under this Agreement shall bear interest at the rate of 4% above the base rate set by Santander UK Plc. (or such other bank as nominated by the Publisher from time to time) (such rate to be calculated monthly on a compound basis). Interest shall accrue on and from the day on which payment was due until the day when payment is actually made (both before and after any judgment) or until payment is accepted by the Publisher as the case may be.
- 12.7 As part of its normal business procedures the Publisher reserves the right to make searches and/or other enquiries about the Buyer using the services of credit reference agencies. The Buyer acknowledges that such enquiries may be made and that agencies may keep copies of the searches which will be shared with other parties.
- 12.8 Where the Buyer is the Advertiser's advertising agency or media buyer or is acting for the Advertiser in some other representative capacity, notwithstanding clause 2.1, the Buyer hereby grants to the Publisher the right of subrogation of all and any debts owed by the Advertiser to the Buyer in relation to or associated with the order or booking for the Advertisement made with the Publisher. Should the Publisher exercise its rights of subrogation, it shall be without prejudice to any of its other rights or remedies available under this agreement or the general law.
13. Cancellations and Amendments
- 13.1 The Publisher shall not be bound by a stop order or cancellation or postponement of any Advertisement or the Campaign (or any element of it) or the Insertion run unless the stop order, cancellation or postponement meets the requirements specified on the Media Kit or, in the case of online Advertisements the provisions of clause 8.3 shall apply.

- 13.2 The Buyer shall remain liable for payment for a stopped, cancelled or postponed Advertisement or the Campaign (or any element of it) or Insertion run, if the relevant instruction is received by the Publisher after the deadline (even if such instruction is followed by the Publisher).
14. Disputes
- 14.1 Any other matter of complaint, claim or query must be raised with the Publisher in writing within seven days following:
- (1) In the case of any Advertisement or Insert, the date of insertion or publication or display of the Advertisement or the date on which it is claimed the Advertisement should have appeared or the Insert run should have occurred;
- (2) In the case of any other item of the Campaign, the date of the delivery of the particular item within the Campaign or the date on which the Buyer claims the item of the Campaign should have been delivered;
- (3) In the case of a disputed invoice, the date of the receipt by the Buyer of the disputed invoice.
- 14.2 The Publisher's maximum liability for any complaint, claim or query referred to in clause 14.1 is limited to giving a credit for its charge for the advertisement or (in an appropriate instance) of publishing the Advertisement or redelivering the Campaign item for a second time without charge. Any complaint claim or query shall not affect the liability of the Buyer for payment by the due time of the Charges for that item and all other Campaign items. Once any dispute in respect of any item of the Campaign has been resolved, payment for that item will, if the original due date has then already passed, be due within three working days.
15. Intellectual Property
- 15.1 The Buyer warrants that it has and it has secured for the benefit in relation to the Publisher all necessary, licenses, permissions, clearances, consents, right, title, interest and Intellectual Property Rights for in relation to the Buyer Materials and, where relevant, in relation to any Promotion, including any trademarks and branding of the Advertiser to enable the Publisher to perform and meet its obligations and enjoy its rights and benefits under this Agreement.
- 15.2 If the Publisher has agreed to provide the creative work for the Advertisement or Campaign, all Intellectual Property Rights in and to all Content owned by or created by the Publisher pursuant to this Agreement (but not the Buyer Materials) are reserved to the Publisher and shall remain under the exclusive ownership of the Publisher, or its licensors (as the case may be).
- 15.3 The Buyer shall not use and shall not permit any other person to use any of the Publisher's Intellectual Property without the prior written consent of the Publisher. Such consent may be given or withheld, and if given, may be given upon such terms and conditions (including as to payment) determined in the Publisher's absolute discretion.
- 15.4 If the Buyer proposes to use any Content developed by the Publisher outside the advertising Campaign proposed in the order (whether during the Term, or following the expiry of the Term), then such use may only take place provided that appropriate remuneration and licensing provisions are agreed in writing between the parties in advance.
- 15.5 The Buyer shall promptly inform the Publisher of any suspected unauthorised use of the Publisher's Intellectual Property Rights referred to in Clause 15.2.

Terms and Conditions of Advertising

- 15.6 The Publisher has the sole right to decide what action (if any) to take in relation to any unauthorised use referred to in clause 15.5 and sole control of the conduct of all proceedings and shall do so at its own expense. If requested, the Buyer shall give the Publisher all reasonable assistance to enable it to do so.
- 15.7 The Publisher may disclose the Buyer's and/or the Advertiser's identity to any third party who is claiming that any material submitted by the Buyer is in breach of any of the warranties set in clause 15.1.
16. Data Management and Data Protection
- 16.1 For the purpose of this Agreement:
- (1) Cookies mean cookies and all similar technologies for storing information, including flash cookies, web beacons or bugs (including transparent or clear gifs) and includes Retargeting Cookies;
  - (2) Data Protection Laws means the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 (Regulation (EU) 2016/679), the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 and any associated regulations or subordinate legislation and any other applicable data protection and privacy legislation, regulations and guidelines applicable in any place territory where the Advertisement is targeted;
  - (3) PECR means The Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 and the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) (Amendment) Regulations 2011, as applicable.
  - (4) Other terms used but not defined in such as "personal data", "controller", "processor", "processing" and "data subject" will have the meanings set out in the Data Protection Laws.
- 16.2 The parties will at all times comply with the provisions and obligations imposed by Data Protection Laws.
- 16.3 Each party shall deal promptly and in good faith with all reasonable and relevant enquiries from the other party relating to its processing of personal data under this Agreement.
- 16.4 Each party shall, if it receives any communication or request from a regulator, data subject or third party which relates to the other party's processing of personal data under this Agreement (including any actual or alleged breach of the Data Protection Laws) without undue delay (at least within 24 hours) forward such communication to the other party and provide reasonable cooperation and assistance to the other party in relation to the same.
- 16.5 Where the Publisher acts as data processor in respect of personal data collected as part of a Campaign:
- (1) the scope, nature, purpose and duration of the processing will be agreed between the parties in writing (including how long the Publisher should retain the personal data) and the personal data must be used in accordance with what is agreed only;
  - (2) the Buyer shall ensure that the personal data shared between the parties must only be what is necessary to fulfil the agreed purpose and shall communicate to the Publisher any special conditions that apply to the processing;
  - (3) the Buyer must ensure that it has a valid legal basis for workingmumsanddads.com to process the personal data;
  - (4) Upon request, the Publisher shall provide the Buyer with a schedule setting out the locations of all facilities, and, where relevant, the names of any sub-processors, where the applicable personal data may be processed;
- 16.6 Whilst the Publisher will use reasonable endeavours to forward to the Buyer any responses that it received to Advertisements from individuals wishing to contact the Advertiser regarding the Advertisement (subject to receiving the requisite consents from those individuals), the Publisher accepts no liability in respect of any loss or damage that arises (or is alleged to have arisen) as a result of any delay or omission in forwarding such responses.
- 16.7 Each party agrees to respond promptly to the other in dealing adequately with all enquires received relating to data protection.
- 16.8 The Buyer consents to the Publisher and any company within its group of companies using the information which it provides when inserting an advertisement to contact the Buyer and/or the Advertiser by email, mail or telephone, about special advertising rates and features that the Publisher may offer from time to time. If the Buyer does not wish to be contacted by the Publisher or has any queries, the Buyer shall contact the Publisher or email hello@workingmumsanddads.com.
- 16.9 The Buyer permits the Publisher to electronically tag and use such technology as the Publisher considers appropriate with the online content to enable the Publisher to collect such data as the Publisher requires or desires in relation to readership of or "clicks on" its content.
- 16.10 Publisher owns all aggregated data (and the Intellectual Property Rights in such data) generated (e.g. via the placement of Cookies) by the online activity of users of:
- (1) the workingmumsanddads.com Network; and
  - (2) mobile devices or e readers (and their applications) upon which users access Advertisements; collected by any third parties ("Usage Data").
- 16.11 The Buyer shall not use (including without limitation the creation, categorisation or re-targeting of data segments), or permit any third party to use Usage Data without:
- (1) having satisfied the Publisher's security approval process; and
  - (2) the Publisher's prior written approval.
- Under no circumstance shall the Buyer use/store or permit any third party to use/store the Usage Data for more than 7 days.
- 16.12
- (1) Whenever any content (including to any Advertisement or link to another website) provided by or relating to the Advertiser (including Buyer Materials) ("Third Party Content") is contained on any workingmumsanddads.com Network or any Audience Extension Inventory, and that Third Party Content triggers the use of any Cookies or any other tracking device (other than a Retargeting Cookie) on or via workingmumsanddads.com Network or any Audience Extension Inventory, the Advertiser will be fully responsible for ensuring that the use of those Cookies complies with the PECRs, including, ensuring that clear and comprehensive information is provided to visitors to the site about the use of any Cookies and ensuring that visitors' consent is obtained to the use of those Cookies, where required by the PECRs. The Publisher shall be fully responsible for the placement and use of Retargeting Cookies and ensuring that the use of the Retargeting Cookies meet the requirements of this clause 16.12(1).
- 16.13 The Publisher may make available to its users the means for turning off Cookies (where used) and no liability shall attach to the Publisher for loss of data as a result of this.
17. FSMA
- 17.1 This clause applies where the Campaign or Advertisement includes the marketing, advertising promotion and/or sale of financial and/or insurance services or products or investments ("Financial Products").
- 17.2 The Publisher is not authorised to carry on investment business in the United Kingdom or elsewhere and the Publisher shall ensure that in promoting any Financial Products, it shall make no express nor implied representation that any of those Financial Products are approved or endorsed by the Publisher and the Buyer will make explicitly clear that the Financial Products is solely promoted by the Advertiser.
- 17.3 The Buyer warrants that the Advertiser is an authorised person within the meaning of the FSMA and that the promotion of the Financial Products in accordance with the Advertisement and Campaign is permitted under the FSMA.
- 17.4 If the Buyer advertises a "direct offer" product where no financial advice will be given and in order that the Publisher can comply with the FSMA, the Buyer warrants that the "direct offer" product shall only be offered as a result of a full review of the market, place confirming that such products are the best of their type that are available in the marketplace. This warranty applies on and from the commencement of this Agreement up to and including the end of the life of that product. The Buyer will provide the Publisher with written confirmation of this in respect of each individual "direct offer" product.
- 17.5 The Buyer accepts full responsibility for compliance with the FSMA and the Buyer will not do or omit to do any act or thing within its reasonable control which will, or would be likely to, cause the Buyer or the Publisher to breach any of its or their provisions.
18. Bribery Act 2010
- 18.1 Each party shall discharge all of its obligations under this Agreement and shall otherwise conduct all of its activities relating to this Agreement in accordance with the Bribery Act 2010, as amended from time to time and any subordinate legislation, rules, guidance and notes issued thereunder ("Bribery Act"). The Buyer must ensure that the Advertiser observes and complies with the provisions of this clause and the Bribery Act.
- 18.2 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 18.1, no party shall (whether by act or omission) commit any breach of the Bribery Act in connection with its activities relating to this Agreement nor request that the other party(ies) (whether by act or omission) commits any breach of the Bribery Act (including, the payment of facilitation payments in order to secure customs clearance for deliveries).
- 18.3 Each party shall have and shall maintain in place throughout the Term adequate procedures under the Bribery Act, to ensure compliance with the Bribery Act, and will enforce them where appropriate.
- 18.4 Any breach by a party of this clause 18 shall constitute a material breach by that party of this Agreement which is not capable of remedy and in such circumstances, the other party shall be entitled at its discretion (subject to clause 18.5) to immediately terminate this Agreement (together with any or all other agreements from time to time in force between the parties) by service of written notice on the party in breach.
- 18.5 When exercising any right of termination available under clause 18.4, the applicable party shall act in a reasonable and proportionate manner having regard to matters such as the gravity of the breach in question; the identity of the person responsible for that breach; and whether in the circumstances, action other than termination of this Agreement would be appropriate.
19. Modern Slavery
- 19.1 In the performance of their obligations under this Agreement, each party shall comply with the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (as amended from time to time and any subordinate legislation, rules, guidance and notes issued there under) ("Modern Slavery Act").
- 19.2 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 19.1, no party shall (whether by act or omission) commit any breach of the Modern Slavery Act in connection with its activities relating to this Agreement nor request that the other party(ies) (whether by act or omission) commits any breach of the Modern Slavery Act.
- 19.3 Any breach by a party of this clause 19 shall constitute a material breach by that party of this Agreement which is not capable of remedy and in such circumstances, the other party shall be entitled at its discretion (subject to clause 19.4) to immediately terminate this Agreement (together with any or all other agreements from time to time in force between the parties) by service of written notice on the party in breach.
- 19.4 When exercising any right of termination available under clause 19.3, the applicable party shall act in a reasonable and proportionate manner having regard to matters such as the gravity of the breach in question; the identity of the person responsible for that breach; and whether in the circumstances, action other than termination of this Agreement would be appropriate.

(6) the Defaulting Party compounds with or enters into a scheme of arrangement for the benefit of its creditors (including any voluntary arrangement as defined in the Insolvency Act 1986) or a receiver is appointed over the Defaulting Party or its assets or any part thereof or a resolution is passed for such appointment or an administration order is made in relation to the Defaulting Party.

23.2 On termination of this Agreement each party retains its rights against the other parties in respect of any past breach, in addition to any other rights, powers or remedies provided by law.

23.3 On termination the Buyer shall be liable for payment of all Charges as referred to in clause 13, as if a cancellation has taken effect.

23.4 Upon expiry or termination of this Agreement for any reason, each Party shall promptly deliver to or otherwise dispose of as directed by the other Party or its duly authorised representative any and all materials and property belonging or relating to the other Party and all copies of the same.

24. Electronic Communications

24.1 The parties may communicate with the other by electronic means using the following protocol:

- (1) The user identification of a sender contained in an electronic communication must be sufficient to verify the identity of the sender and the authenticity of the communication;
- (2) An electronic communication sent containing the user's identification and establishing the user as its originator and has the same effect as a document containing the user's written signature; and
- (3) An electronic communication, or any computer printout of it, is proof of the authenticity of the original document of the electronic communication.

25. General

25.1 Nothing in this Agreement is intended to create a partnership or joint venture of any kind between the parties or to authorise either party to act as agent for the other, and neither party shall have authority to act in the name or on behalf of or otherwise to bind the other in any way (including but not limited to the making of any representation or warranty, the assumption of any obligation or liability or the exercise of any right or power) without the express written authority of the other in addition to this Agreement.

25.2 The provisions of those clauses intended to have continuing effect shall continue in full force and effect following the termination or expiry of this Agreement.

25.3 The terms and conditions set out herein apply to each order or contract for the Advertisement, insertion or Campaign. If there is any conflict or inconsistency in the terms and conditions of this Agreement, these terms and conditions (or, if later, the revised terms and conditions published by the Publisher pursuant to sub-clause 25.4 below) shall prevail over any terms contained in the order or booking. Any terms or conditions stipulated on the order form or elsewhere by the Buyer are void insofar as they are inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions, unless agreed in writing by the Publisher.

25.4 The Publisher reserves the right to change the terms and conditions at any time and the Buyer should revisit the terms and conditions before it places an order or makes a booking for an Advertisement, Insertion or Campaign at www.workingmums&dads.co.uk to ensure that it is fully aware of the current terms and condition.

25.5 Neither party may assign or sub-contract any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

25.6 Calls to and from the Publisher may be recorded.

25.7 The failure of the Publisher to enforce any term of or right arising pursuant to this Agreement does not constitute a waiver of such term or right and shall in no way affect the Publisher's later right to enforce or exercise the term or right.

25.8 Apart from the Advertiser (if not a direct party to this Agreement), no person other than a party to this Agreement may enforce this Agreement by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

25.9 Any modification of this Agreement shall be effective only if agreed in writing and signed by both parties and the intention to amend this Agreement is clearly expressed.

25.10 If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction it shall be deemed to have been deleted without affecting the remaining provisions.

25.11 This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and the parties hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts
